

International Humanitarian Law and Accountability for Mass Atrocities: Policy and Practice

Project Title	International Humanitarian Law and Accountability for Mass Atrocities: Policy and Practice
Project Summary	Emory University Law School Human Rights Clinic students provide policy support and research on matters relating to international criminal justice for mass atrocities including war crimes and crimes against humanity.
Country	United States

Project Description

Issues could include emerging and innovative mechanisms for ensuring accountability; analyzing trends in international humanitarian law and international human rights law; country-specific research, and drafting public talking points and speeches.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)

Analytical writing

Cultural diplomacy

Political Analysis

Research

Additional Information

None

Language Requirements

None